It's grand huh?

A power beyond imagination...

You officially become Apeas to Lord Kainik.

Any wound he receives you will share with him.

Dragon Artifact
is a tool born of dragons power

No.

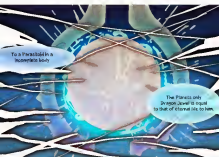

It's better she doesn't know anything at all.

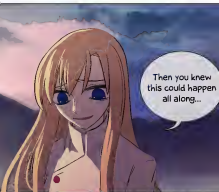

I cannot create something
But has already happened

Dragons and Parasitoids...

It is not something I can solve with Human lives.

If that is too easy...

1 Year

After 1 Year Kairak will grow and he will take flight off this planet with the dragon jewel right?

Yes that was our request.

If the person holds objective to life...

I will never let them have it

No matter what methods iI use....!!

However the Dragon
Must leave...

away from this planet and this world..

That is our Contract...

Thanks for your words of encouragement!

It really helped me focus alot harder and got to work on Abide in the Wind

Love you guys!

Thanks for Supporting us!

Concentrate
Maintain that form...

Now let's try purifying this water that we corrupted.

Twitch

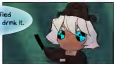

Twitche

Just imagine you
cleansing this water, clear as it can be so it's drinkable

Now it is purified
enough so we can drink it.

And also...

Midam Riana: you've officially become the contractor for the Dragon Artifact: Moon Slicer

FLOP

Ugh... I can't believe I'm this tired just from maintaining the form

It feels like my head is going to shatter...

I also feel a empty
void in my head...

Do contractors go through this mental stress every time they activate the Artifact?

Yes,
madam

A Dragon Artifact
requires mental power
as a contract.

If one does not have the mental capacity the artifact will just reject them.

And to Activate a Dragon Artifact without contract continuously consumes your mental power...

Normally they die from going bonkers from mental breakdown.

But Madam Akemi
does not require for herself to use her mental power.

PING

You can borrow power directly from the Dragon-Jewel to activate the Artifact.

Since you said you wanted
to "experience" it,
I ordered first hand.

So I just temporarily ended the Dragon-Jewel so you couldn't use it.

It may be rude of me to say this but...

An artifact that lost its main core...

I've no means to find out what information was contained within.

It's ok,
That's the reason why we're on this journey

Maybe I can hunters...?

Yes.

If we need information,
no better place to ask than a place full of people who're contractors...

That time...

When I was purifying the Pierced he dropped this box.

By the way the box is shaped and the original jewel that was contained within, I've no doubt this was a Dragon Artifact.

And by the size of the Core I'd say it's at least Grade 1

The method he used was definitely not methodical at all

However his words implied and showed some truth.

IF YOU COME WITH ME

I'LL GIVE THIS BACK TO YOU

Should "Come" with me

That means that the parasitoid has to move somewhere else to use the Dragon Jewel which means if I find out where he is I can find his original body...

If the core was destroyed
during purification

It means that the Artifact was corrupted with the person that the parasitoid held.

Parasitoid does not have any means of creating the Dragon Artifact as they couldn't obtained it through other means

A Artifact that contains Malevolence is very rare.

The Control is very tough to go through as well.

While it may be impossible to completely "destroy" the Paradox.

By destroying his vessel we bought ourselves at least a year.

If we trace the remnants of this artifact we should be able to get closer to the main body of the Paradox.

That will be the first step to getting closer to that Parasitoid!

Already alone by the time he was self-aware

He's just waited ever since

A world where
No other Dragons are around

A world without meaning or hope

Interesting...

Tomato...

I cannot even begin to imagine what it was like...

The one that couldn't understand was me.

My...

Lack of knowledge and Discipline and selfishness has lead up to this point.

A Rhyona shares her body and her emotions with the Dragon

But since Lord Krimic has almost zero to no emotions...

He'll be heavily affected by the way you feel.

So all you have to do...

..... Is that.

Until the Parasitoid pays with his life and blood for what he's done.

But I shouldn't have any ill intentions for now..

I can't affect Kairak
in my revenge..

That's it the difference
the Dragon-Jewel
bottle of her...

The immediately notice a contrast with a High-Class Dragon Jewels in a single eye...

That's a feature with Incredibly mental capacity

Well, as long as she doesn't change drastically we should be safe...

So I have a thought I want to make of Doku...

Hmm?

Wait a moment readers There's someone approaching

Could it be the hunters?

A Human with a odd shaped glass circle around his neck...

And a human with a black collar, it's a mystery...

Transferring knowledge

Episode 2: Blue Forest of Miraga Forest

글 . 그림      신   율

Incredible!

I knew the guild in Middle was incredibly skilled,

but to think you had that relationship with the Hunter!

The Kingdom have very strict rules regarding Dragon Artifacts,

An average human almost never sees them

Not even ago when I was writing my special report on Dragon Kingdoms.
I saw several Dragon
Artifacts going off,

It was an incredible sight.

A 4 story house
made of concrete and BOOM!!

Ballen may be my son, but he's too impulsive and his emotions get the best of him.

I'm worried about how he'll continue our lineage...

Alack, you must protect my son.

Master.

It seems that the young Master still lives.

The camera is very good.

The young Master still lives.

To protect that Bloodline
and to serve my Master

I need to observe her

I must investigate
you thoroughly

Surprisingly that Cardholder is only for a long ago
"Religious Figure"

We aren't looking too deep as to the real reason why we're here.

She requested that I alter their memories
a little

So that nothing we would not be suspicious

You know, I think you did what you thought was best for the world

However my memory alteration does not affect Constructors

Yuan surprised when I found out the slave race is Constructors

Slaves need only to follow the orders
from their master

So we only need to alter the memory of the Minister

What's that?

I didn't want to get too close to him

What's your backstory?

Oh, I see.

Is it suppose to be like this?

My memory alteration works differently, altering emotions rather than direct memory.

After it's been altered
once,

I cannot predict what emotions it'll produce

Humans always think of themselves, it's in their instincts.

Normal humans in general,

will always think of themselves before others.

People say a parent's love is infinite and that they will always think of 'their children' before themselves.

"My bloodline to the future"

It's kind of like an instinct based on desire,

However in reality there's always two sides of the coin.

If there's a human with more desire than others...

Copyright © 2007 Margaret Weis

Then there are humans with almost no desire at all.

Reeve is...

A special type of person
that'll feel satisfied
if others feel happiness.

She wants or needs
nothing and will happily sacrifice herself in order to do good for others.

If you think about it,
it may seem like a virtuous thing to do, but...

From time to time, she needlessly sacrifices herself too much.

Surely as a human .
No, as a living being it becomes a problem

If someone thinks this,

they will surely use her

She will be abused to no extent.

And eventually treated as a slave.

If one doesn't take care of himself.

They'll surely be used until exhaustion

Unless someone interferes with a girl's will in her life.

It's a good thing that child died living a peaceful life in the middle

Better than dying a dog's death

Isn't the room a bit stuffy?

The weather is great outside

Count Dorian adopts country's daughters and
"teaches" them

To spy on the royalty that visits their town...

Three girls that are your age already.

We should be careful of Danton after all.

However it is true that Danton has less strict rules than the Capital.

Now that your babies are here,
it seems that the room
is brighter than usual.

They're in the Blue Forest of Ever since you disappeared do you know how much I've

You're as talkative

Followed?
What?

Your best friend,

I mean, it's nothing...

Could you possibly be...

If that's the case...

Do you know anything about Dragon Artifacts?

I have an Artifact that has been destroyed / gone overseas...

I've heard that you guys have been hunting Dragon Artifacts even before the Capital fell...

Ah!
I'm so sorry!

What have I done...

Ah, you're in luck.
They're coming back soon for regular maintenance.

It's getting even darker...

After doing our best down in the village first? I'll lead you guys there.

I want to hear about what's happening outside the village.

Yes!

Thank goodness we who knows the path.

Mirage-Beast
Hunters.

As their name
suggests, they hunt
Mirage Beasts.

Mirage Beasts are characterized by their many eyes and unique physique. They are ancient creatures that have resided in these lands long before we have.

The Mirage Beasts live only in the northern regions and the Forest of Mirage Beasts.

They are often hunted for their elegant fur and precious blood, which fetch a high price in the market.

Mirage Beasts are unique in that they can only be slain using Dragon Artifacts.

The hunters have been hunting them even before the Laws of the Kingdom were established.

They maintain their infamous reputation for their deceptive nature and refusal to obey orders from the Capital.

Moreover,

they possess masters of Dragon Artifacts, many of which are unknown to the Capital.

Now matter how I look at it,

Where did they take those pictures?

They are with sharp fangs and snake-like eyes that glow in darkness.

They have opened his and thrown our kind into despair.

They laughed at our deaths, calculating us with those eyes.

Mrs... I hope I can trust your judgement.

What should I?

Katsuki, you're already strong, so I think you should save that power until we're in dire need of it.

Showing off your ability alone takes care of the situation faster, but...

It is not appropriate, nor is it always the best method to resolve things.

I think we should always consider our actions beforehand.

But I have to pass my own judgement.

indeed, the way
most great dragon artifacts were designed was after all, they were the creations

of the dragon artifact.

and also designed to protect crystal.

the group
wasn't happy because it was and headed to their next quest

however, they are quickly and will continue to evolve

we should be careful around them.

is there not enough that we want to see this?

there are three pretty great features who are also known as the [old-of]
dragon artifacts

include that are known as "ancient" ones

At that time,
all humans had pony tails.

Let's see now...

I don't know when it started, but the Alboom's population decreased, and they became slaves
instead.

The cities they lived in were either emptied or occupied by humans.

Several decades before the Kingdom was established, the last city of Alboom disappeared.

The very few remaining Alboom went to find a home for themselves.

In this age, there aren't a lot of people who know about Alboom.

Almost
none at all.

Do not try to comprehend dragons.

Questioning them is the same as questioning
nature itself.

Dragons are just tools.

We only need to focus on the one who holds the Dragon Jewel, the Ryouma.

That human lost the battle against the Lulu,
All of her life energy got absorbed, thus creating her life.

This is Chief Reporter Santepe from Hutan Magazine. The date is Year 1046 Empire, Year 68 Kingdom, Summer.

104 Empire years, 68 Kingdom years, 68 years after Kingdom establishment.

This was written while she was working on her report on the Magic Forests in the west side of the Kingdom.

What surprised upon my arrival in the Hunter's village was that—

...the vast majority of the population are outsiders

I had been expecting criminals or thieves waiting for a chance to poison, but there was none of that sort

What intrigued me most was that all of the missing reporters were going about their daily lives, as though there was nothing wrong.
It really puzzled me

Shortly after my arrival, I met the Manga Scout
Hunters—

I continued my travels with them without encountering any problems

Manga Scout
hunting isn't too far off from normal
hunting.

They also showed me how they hunted, which was really useful for the report.

But the longer I travelled with them, the more my respect grew.

Idly...

...did the reporters that come here...

...and the tourists from the Kingdom...

...choose to stay in the Hunter's Village...

...and lead this lifestyle?

That question bothered me

(At the moment we arrived at their company.)

"Thank you"

AS TURN YOUR ADOLOCK OFF T J

Did you just say...
GOLD?

It's not that surprising
since their guilds
originally came from the north.

For them,
they were proven, great minds, their bags looked.

Apparently
they used to have quite a large population.

But their numbers
were significantly decreased since.

Nowhere, you can only find them between the Gold Mountain Range and the Blue Forest of Magic Forest.

Daduk, one of the Hunter's central targets.

When he spoke into the street.

The hunters' house is situated on the cliff.

...While the peak is where they commence work... which was it called again... the Crest?

A large, ancient stone archway with a massive pillar in the center, illuminated by spotlights in a dark cave. The archway is made of rough-hewn stone and has a large opening in the center. The pillar is a single, thick column of stone that supports the arch. The floor is uneven and rocky. The walls are dark and textured. Two spotlights are visible: one on the left wall and one on the right wall, both casting a bright beam of light onto the pillar and the archway. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and ancient.

These two areas...

...are separated by what appears to be a natural cave.

That path is too dangerous to walk through, so we had it blocked off for safety reasons.

There would be the path to the bottom of the cave has been sealed off.

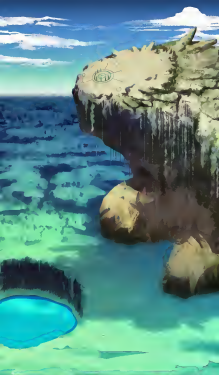

After passing through several tunnels, and a few hundred meters long.

you will arrive at the peak.

...where the machine
behind the Magma Plant is located can be entered

Once it has been activated, you will be able to see and hear a clear image and voice.

Hello, Madam Kira.

Would you like me to initiate the roll call for the eleventh segment?

Prepare it for me.

Yes, madam.

That thing is called a Dragon Pendant which allows it to see and hear information and seems to be directly connected to their main network.

This mechanism is what used by the Masters to check in.

The hunters are not entirely sure as to how it works exactly but they mentioned that this crystal has been around long before themselves

That eye looks pretty similar to Shiro's...

I kept pursuing them for more information regarding their homeland, but...

They kept changing the question each, only vaguely telling me that it's somewhere near the Red Mountain Range
